You can use your GET units to pay any of the qualified higher education expenses in the chart below. For more information, please review IRS Publication 970 – Tax Benefits for Education. The publication is available on the IRS website (www.irs.gov) or by calling the IRS at 1.800.829.1040.

College-specific fees	Schools may impose their own fees, such as technology fees, library fees, recreation fees, and fees to secure repayment of bonded indebtedness. These fees are not considered state-mandated fees and, therefore, are not included when determining the GET payout value amount. However, you may use your GET units to pay these additional fees if you have extra units available after paying tuition and state-mandated fees.
On-campus/Off-campus room and board	The student must attend at least half-time. The amount cannot exceed the room and board allowance calculated by the college or university in its Cost of Attendance budget. (Check with your school's financial aid office to determine its room and board allowance.)
Books, supplies and equipment	The college course must require these expenses.

Special needs	Expenses of a student with special needs that are necessary in connection with that person's higher education.
K-12 tuition	Tuition (up to $10,000 annually) at elementary and secondary public, private, and religious schools. Please note that GET is specifically designed to save for qualified higher education expenses at postsecondary schools. Please consult a tax advisor.
Apprenticeship programs	Certain expenses associated with apprenticeship programs registered and certified by the Secretary of Labor under the National Apprenticeship Act.
Student loans	Principal and interest on certain qualified education loans. This provision applies to repayments up to $10,000 per individual. This is a lifetime amount, not an annual limit.
